EAA Chapter 958 San Marcos, TX
Where every day is a good flying day!

December 2018

Hangar Talk

Hi everyone. Well its been another eventful month here. We had a well attended meeting last month and the weather cooperated so we had successful Young Eagles event following the meeting. And many thanks to our pilots and ground workers who made the event a meaningful one for the kids.

Many thanks also to Scott Ross and helper Gwyneth for an interesting and informative program on building your own CNC machine, capable of cutting wood or metal parts for an aircraft.

Christmas meeting: The Chapter Christmas Meeting will be held at Kent Blacks BBQ in San Marcos Saturday Dec.8th at 6:00 pm. We're trying to put together a good program so bring your signifigant other, kids, grandkids or friends. In addition, we'll be hosting a White Elephant gift exchange so get your presents wrapped. Directions on the page 3.

NOTE

A Special VMC Club will be held Tuesday, December 11th at New Braunfels Airport, at 6:15 pm Moderated by Terry Ross

Scott Ross discusses the types of parts the homebrew CNC machine is capable of producing.

Young Eagles: The chapter had a very successful Young Eagles event on the 17th with 12 JrROTC cadets flown. We had several new non-member pilots who came just to be able to fly these young folks. They included Rick Colaluca, Joe Jablecki and Jeff Rockwood. This will conclude the Young Eagles events for 2018 and we hope to have greater success in 2019. Thanks to everyone who helped to make this year a successful Young Eagles year.
