

2000

Chapter 14 at Flabob
Open House

Ramp finally gets sealed

2000

Ryan's Sadler Vampire
with Volkswagon engine

WWI replica hangars build
by Chapter

2001

Larry Rothrock, Dennis Cullum and Bob Osborn prepare lunch at Chapter

Bill Wright's new OMF-100 is the factory built equivalent of the kit built Glastar

2002

Jack Thomson program on building an RV6

John Kerr's Thorp T-18

2002

Gene Hubbard attaches
rudder to Pietenpol
fuselage

Larry Rothrock and Bill
Ingram fly in formation
in their VariEzes

2003

Gene Hubbard leads a model building
workshop

Dennis Cullum
on Roof
Repairing Cupola

2004

Chris Puntis with his Sonex

Phil Lankford's Q-200

2004

Bill Moore won a ride in Larry Rothrock's Great Lakes

Ryan's
Quickie

2004

RV-4

Gene Hubbard awarded the Hunsaker Leadership award

2005

EZ fly-in; under wing pods
are for luggage

Reach for Tomorrow YE
event – all were Inupiat Eskimos from Alaska

2005

First T-hangar arrives at EAA 14

Donna Frye,
mayoral candidate,
gave well attended
talk in Hangar 3

2006

Joe Russo and Larry Rothrock at EAA Sport Pilot Seminar

EAA Sport Pilot Seminar

2006

EAA Sport Pilot
Seminar

2006

Pete Grootendorst directs traffic (had over 71 aircraft – and then stopped counting)

EAA Sport Pilot
Seminar

EAA Sport Pilot Seminar

2006

2006

Long-EZ's fill ramp

Ultralight Fly-in 2006

Mike Tussey addresses Chapter 14 membership at 50th Anniversary meeting

Gene Hubbard's Pietenpol ready for first flight

2006

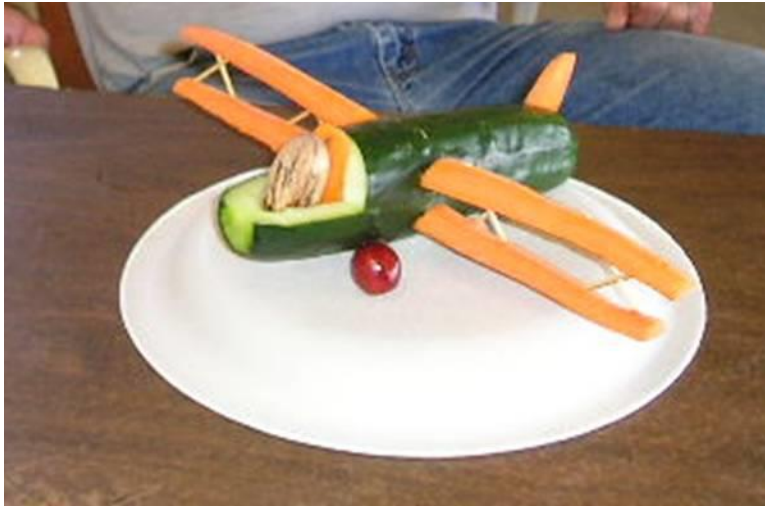

Mike Tussey, Deputy Director of Aiport, watches as Dennis Cullum, Larry Rothrock and Joe Russo sign long-term lease for EAA 14.

Ken Smith presents 50th Anniversary plaque from EAA National to President Larry Rothrock

2007

Vegetable Airplane

Ryan's Mazda-
powered E-Racer

2008

Joe Pribilo in his Luscombe 8A/F Silvaire

Joe Russo, Gene Hubbard, Chris Puntis and Larry Rothrock inventory material for new hangar purchased by the Chapter

2008

Bill Allan's newly rebuilt PT17 is Steve McQueen's former aircraft, N3188, Steve's reform school number.

Sparky takes Gene Hubbard's Pietenpol on its first flight

2008

Bob Johnson feeds hungry
Sea Cadets

Vern Edwards
and Lloyd Gray display their Stardusters

2009

Kerry Powell Receives a Life Member Award

Jim Mac Kinnon and Gene Hubbard with first assembled Nieuport

