In the absence of President Don Schwanke, Byron Engle called an informal meeting to order @ 11:10 a.m. with 6 members in attendance @ Gulf Aviation in Harlingen. Since quorum was not met, official business could not be conducted.

Members in attendance were as follows;

Merle Jenkins	Shirlene Jenkins
Byron Engle	Robert Carter
Cindy Vasquez	Manny Garcia

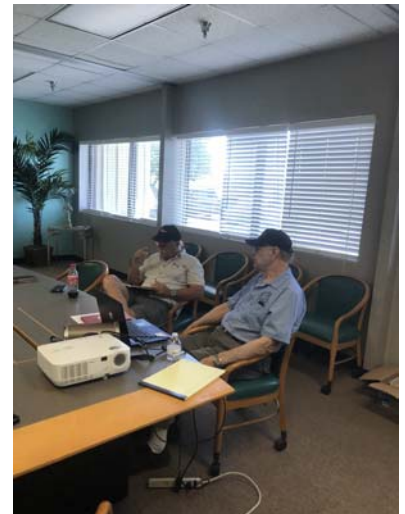

There are no changes in the treasurer's report. The chapter is solvent. The minutes to last month's meeting will be on the website soon.

Old Business: There was none to discuss.

Byron then asked if we had any new business and there was none either.

Byron then proceeded to show the members 3 videos followed by a question and answer session.

The first video was: VMC club meeting and the title was "A Powerless Odor". Next was VMC club meeting and the title was "Snowing". Thirdly, there was an IMC club meeting and the title was "Where is My Gear?"

We were to have a young lady, Miss Kelsey Charles speak at the meeting, but unfortunately she was not feeling well but she said she will be at the next meeting in Edinburg. She is studying aviation engineering and plans to start working on her private license soon.

We would like to send get well wishes to Don Schwanke as he is in the hospital with Covid and Pneumonia. And to his wife, Geneda. She has Covid but is recovering at home.

Since there was nothing to really discuss, the meeting adjourned at 11:45 a.m.

After a few exchanges between Byron and Manny, the topic arose of where to go eat and Merle and Shirlene's favorite place to go is The Longhorn Cattle Company in San Benito (ostensibly to celebrate her belated birthday).

So off they went to enjoy a fabulous lunch. Some of the members had other commitments and therefore weren't able to join them.

The next meeting will be on August 13, 2022 at the Edinburg Airport at 11:00 a.m.

C y'all there,

Respectfully submitted,
Cindy Vasquez

P. S. Byron did an eagle flight on Art Chavarria Sunday evening and he is so excited that he wants to take flying lessons as soon as he can. 'Way to go Art!
