Larry Eversmeyer's recap of his Oshkosh adventure 2 days in Oshkosh then on to Nova Scotia

Summer camp report by Chase Lewis

(Chase attended the Basic Air Camp on a Scholarship form Chapters 24 and 1098)

In case he got hungry, he packed 12 packet of Skittles, 6 packages of Star Burst, and a box of Cheez Its.

Upon arrival he received name tag. the building that they stayed in was two stories plus a basement.

The basement contained the game rooms.

1 floor contained the boys residents, the other the girl residents.

Each day started with beds needing to be made by 7:50, followed by breakfast at 8:00.

All of the campers were broken into three groups Alpha, Bravo, and Charlie

The Alpha group was the smallest.

Morning activity was in the classroom

then lunch

in the afternoon was physical activities. One of the activities was the Rock Wall.

Chase received a certificate for most aggressive time.

Other activities were communications, gliders, unmanned aircraft, and compass hill.

They have one hour free time after meals.

Each of their rooms had 4 beds, two up two down.

If a camper got "Out of bounds" they were sent home

Motion was made to close meeting and seconded, and all approved.

OTHER INFO

The Guthrie-Edmond Regional Airport Community Day and Fly-In saw lots of activity, with EAA pilots going above and beyond to fly another huge turn-out of Young Eagles.

Here are a few pictures from the day...

This fellow and his jet stopped in briefly at the Guthrie Fly-In...

Larry Hinton had his Beans and Cornbread get-together at Goldsby on Thursday, October 5th. A good number of folks turned out, though I'm not sure anybody flew in. Weather might have been a factor. Some guy in a Kitfox did taxi up to partake in the festivities. Delicious food was eaten, much more than just beans and cornbread, and lots of good conversation took place.

Gary provided this flyer for the Fairview Fly-In, so put it on your calendar:
