

EAA Chapter 1121 Meeting

April 18, 2019

1. Kurt opened the meeting welcoming attendees for burgers and jumbo hot-dogs along with side dishes brought by members.
2. 32 Members and 2 guests in attendance.
3. Happy Birthday to Tess Jones who spent her birthday evening with us!
4. Kurt introduced guest speaker, Jim David, from Sky-Vu Flyers, <https://www.sky-vu.org/>. Sky-Vu is an Indianapolis Flying Club with a total of five aircraft (4 Cessnas and a Cirrus SR22) valued at $1 M. The aircraft are located at Eagle Creek, Metro and Indy Regional airports. Established in 1958, Sky-Vu is the oldest flying club in Indiana and one of the oldest in the country. They currently have 70 members with a waiting list of 4 individuals.
5. Heavy rain fell throughout the meeting, peaking during our guest's presentation. The metal roof made hearing our speaker difficult and would have been impossible without use of a microphone.
6. Cooper Gray and Judy Birchler provided an update on the status of Cooper's 3rd Class Medical application. Additional medical documents were requested and are being provided to the FAA.
7. Mario Rodriguez, Executive Director of the Indianapolis Airport Authority, has accepted Kurt's invitation to attend an EAA 1121 chapter meeting; date to be determined.
8. Next chapter event is Saturday, May 11, 8:00 a.m. our 2nd Saturday Fly-out breakfast to Grimes Field Airport Cafe, I74, Urbana, Ohio. Meet at MQJ or if weather is poor, meet at Sero's Restaurant, E. Washington Street.
9. Next meeting Thursday, May 16, 2019, 6:30 pm, KMQJ, Chapter Hangar 407-13.
