- Media Library
 - Chapters
 - Chapter Folders
 - EAA1314
 - EAA Chapter 1314 April 1 2020
 - Files
 - Images
 - Headers
 - IMG_1405
 - Jeff Martin
 - Cessna 170 Restoration
 - RV-8 Project
 - StockImages
 - Media folder

On the right side, there are search results for "media library(4)". Each result shows the folder name, template, location, version, and creation date. For example, the first result is "media library(4)" with Template: Main section, Location: s, Version: 1, and Created: 2008-03-12.
