President's Ramblings August 2021

Greetings to all Chapter 135 families and friends. These Ramblings are compiled while I've got some downtime at Oshkosh - the year is zipping by. The chapter chairs we built and donated are out front welcoming those to the Blue Barn.

Exciting news, I reached out to all the chapter President's in the state of Iowa (16 chapters) regarding a statewide gathering of Iowa Chapters at Nash Field on Saturday September 11th at 1:30pm. Heard back from three chapter President's. Hopefully, 135 can be instrumental in establishing or creating a yearly event/gathering of Chapters, whereas each year a different chapter hosts the statewide gathering.

On another note, I'm writing this while at Oshkosh on the Saturday before Airventure begins. Twenty four months is just too long between this great event. I hope you were able to attend. My morning view from my squatters quarters.

No need to set that alarm. Plenty of early morning chatter, engine start or flyovers. It's still cool to be Camping on the grounds which in my opinion the best Oshkosh experience.

Our poker run was a success in spite of the weather the previous week which forced it being pushed back a week. Eight planes and pilots participated with Todd Freeland taking the coveted first place prize with 8's and Aces.

Congratulations to all those participants, hope to see more next year More Poker Run pictures are in the newsletter. Welcome Qinn Fairchild and Scott Olson, our newest members to the chapter.
Till next time - blue skies and tailwinds AJ

Stopped by the Chapter Barn the first weekend of at Oshkosh. Got the chapter checked in! Hadn't ever been the first one there so that was fun. Also went to check out the chapter chairs. They were out front and center and look really good!
