OLD BUSINESS

Young Eagles Flight – Final planning for the Young Eagles Event was the talk of the meeting.

Plans for having a cookout to feed the Young Eagles were discussed.

- Doug would secure a grill
- Dewey would supply cooking staff
- Michael Carpenter would get food stuffs for the cookout
- Already discussed Steve Glove would:
 - Report the event to the EAA and secure insurance
 - Advertise the event in local papers
- Dean Selby the KSRB airport manager was notified of the event
- Two pilots: Lonnie Hitchcock and Michael Carpenter were confirmed
- Al Beardsley wasn't sure if his Annual would be starting by then or not

NEW BUSINESS

Upper Cumberland Airport Manager – The new airport manager Dean Selby was asked to come by and introduce himself and to tell of any plans for the airport. He had a lot to offer about KSRB but most notably he detailed plans that might include the ILS status of the airport. This could be a major concern for many as it is a favored place for IFR pilots to perform their required practice landings. Also the Air Ambulance service needs this for their practice as well.
