Secretary's Report – There were no September minutes; YE flight replaced regular meeting.

OLD BUSINESS

- Membership Dues - $20 for single. $30 covers the family for the year.
- Young Eagles event – very successful, thanks to Lonnie Hitchcock, who flew 16 young eagles!

NEW BUSINESS

- 2025 Officers were nominated and elected: Lonnie Hitchcock, President; Bill Hill, Vice President; Mark Benningfield, Treasurer; Eric Birmingham, Secretary.
- The 2024 Holiday Dinner will be held on Saturday, December 7, at 6 PM in Hangar B. Entrée (brisket), beverages, and plates/napkins/silverware will be provided by the organizers. Mark Benningfield will email the membership and will coordinate the side dishes.
- Joe Carter informed the membership of the passing on October 17th of Dick Warren. A dedicated aviator, Dick had been president of this EAA chapter as well as others in Tennessee and New York. Most recently, Dick was restoring a 1947 Luscombe 8A with a Continental 85 engine.
- Howard Burnette asked that in preparation for future Young Eagles events, promotional fliers be made available for hand-out. All agreed.
- Michael Decker presented a variety of VMC/IMC club questions; everyone joined in the discussions.
