Serving airplane builders, restorers, pilots, & airplane lovers in Western Michigan

Flying Adventures Group Friday, December 3, 2021, 7:00pm to 8:30pm

EAA Clubhouse, Grand Haven Memorial Airpark (3GM), 16446 Comstock St, Grand Haven, MI

Is it time to spread your wings? Got some bucket-list destinations? Making the trip in your own airplane can be some of the best rewards, but committing to the actual event can be intimidating. That's where flying with a group can ease the pressure and make the decisions so much easier.

Our December program will feature Herb Harney, from EAA Chapter 704, Sparta, MI, who will introduce us to the Flying Adventures Group which includes some great people from all over. Their destinations have been mountains, oceans, islands and national parks. They've done both domestic and international locations. Herb says, "We do it as a group, so you can just fly comfortable, enjoying the trip." It's time to break out and spread those wings!
