JUNE NEWSLETTER A great month for Aviation in Utah

LAST WEEKEND

The Skypark Aviation Festival was a great success (despite less than cooperative weather). Chapter 23 had six aircraft on display.

We answered lots of questions about Young Eagles. This year the Festival added in person and online Seminars. This writer earned WINGS credit for: "So your engine just quit" and "Backcountry Flying". An F35 pilot passed around his $400K helmet during his presentation. Thanks to all of our volunteers!
