EAA Happenings-

AIRVENTURE 2022

Free admission: Kids to age 18 will be able to experience AirVenture Oshkosh 2022 with free admission. Bring the whole family!

The U.S. Air Force will be a big feature this year as EAA celebrates the 75th anniversary.

One Week Wonder returns to AirVenture! This year volunteers will be building a Sonex Waix in ONE WEEK!

Rides will be available on the Ford Tri-Motor, B-17 Yankee Lady, B-25 Berlin Express, and Bell 47 Helicopter. See AirVenture from above in these historic airplanes and helicopters.

THE GRASS ROOTS EAA CHAPTER 284

WAYNESVILLE, OH 401

JULY 2022

Top 10 Reasons for Pilots to Attend AirVenture

Adapted from EAA (source)

1. All your friends are there! Those you know well, and those you haven't met yet.
2. Put KOSH in your logbook in July. There's no better feeling than to hear the Wittman Regional Airport controller say to you, "Great landing. Welcome to Oshkosh!"
3. You really did need that new thing after all. With over 800 vendors, you can get direct information on that thing you were considering.
4. Everybody speaks the language. At Oshkosh, there's no need to explain. We all get it.
5. Ultimate hangar flying experience! When you get back home you'll have new Oshkosh stories to tell.
6. Drool-worthy aircraft. There's no such thing as "if you've seen one, you've seen them all"!
7. Ultimate sunrises and sunsets. See the golden-hour sunlight over rows and rows (and rows) of airplanes.
8. You're gonna learn something. With 1,000-plus forums or seminars, and informal gatherings of owners, you will learn something.
9. Make yourself a better aviator. A pilot certificate is a license to learn and at Oshkosh, you'll learn from the best, because they're here sharing their expertise.
10. Get hands-on. Want to master that new skill? You can do it here under the guidance of experts.
