

The Frederick Flyer

President's Message

Greetings EAA Chapter 524 Members and Friends,

This is a great time of the year to be involved with aviation. This Saturday, AOPA is hosting the Wings 'n Wheels event at the NACC. Our Chapter will host a spot with two Chapter members' airplanes. We will also have a table with literature and business cards with our meeting times and contact information. I hope the weather holds out for the event.

The restoration project of the Piper Cub is going strong. I hope everyone is following the progress reports Ernie O'Roark and Jack Fromm are posting. Everyone from the Chapter is welcome to help or visit. They are meeting regularly on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Check the Chapter website for updates.

Another event on the field at FDK this November 19th is Paws & Planes: Holiday at the Airport 2016. They will be needing more help with various things to make it a great time for all who attend. I will have more details to share at the November Chapter meeting. If you are interested or would like more information, you may contact Victoria at turbotheflyingdog@gmail.com.

Wishing you clear skies,
Mark Gosselin
EAA Chapter 524 President

October Picnic & Meeting

Weather did not cooperate for our original picnic date so we rescheduled it as a lead-in to our October membership meeting. This time, the weather gods cooperated in spades. It was an absolutely gorgeous evening, which was fortunate because our speaker for the evening planned a show and tell outside.

We had a very good turnout and chef Mark G. fired up the grill around 5 p.m. for the burgers and dogs. While the food was cooking, Jerry Blake and Dean Stickell offered rides in their 601 XL and Glasair III and several members took them up on their offers.

After the main course, a variety of member-supplied desserts were available for sampling. The pumpkin pie was especially popular.

Mark G. decided to do an “upside-down” meeting so we went right into the program after the dinner. Patrick Smith by that time had set up his hot air balloon components right outside the hangar and as darkness fell, he began to tell us how he had come by his passion for the sport. And it was immediately obvious that he truly was passionate about it—and very knowledgeable as well. I must confess I was pretty naïve about the complexity of hot air ballooning. I thought it was pretty much a case of picking a clear, calm day, firing up the burners and letting the wind take you where it wanted. What else was there to know? Well, Patrick disabused me of that notion. There is a surprising amount of technical and safety information to absorb to obtain the rating. And even my presumption that one had no control over the direction of a balloon flight turned out to be wrong. If you do your preflight planning well and know how winds aloft can behave, you can have a surprising amount of control over where you go. I was also impressed to learn how much equipment redundancy there is and how prepared Patrick is (for example, carrying three welder’s torch lighters in case the burner igniters fail). Check out a video of the two burner modes here.

Over and over again, Patrick stated how much he enjoys sharing his love for the sport and he encouraged our members to feel free to come talk to him if they ever spot him and his balloon at the airport. They might even get invited for a ride if there is space available! You can learn more about Patrick and his business at TailwindsOverFrederick.com.
