CHAPTER BANQUET DATE CHANGED

Due to the difficulty of finding available facilities for our original banquet date in February, the Chapter Banquet has been rescheduled for Saturday, March 23. See the attached flyer for complete information.

FEBRUARY MIDMONTH

Chapter 54 members will be given a tour of the Confederate Air Force Hangar and aircraft on Saturday, February 2. Meet at the Confederate Air Force hangar at Fleming Field at 10:00am.

SPORT AVIATION CONFERENCE

The 3rd annual Sport Aviation Conference will be held February 9, at the Thunderbird Hotel in Bloomington. The conference is sponsored by the Minnesota Department of Transportation, in conjunction with EAA, the Balloon Pilot's Association, the Minnesota Ultralight Association, and the Soaring Society of America. For more information, contact Wayne Petersen at (612) 296-9853.

LAKE ELMO AIRPORT MEETING POSTPONED

The combination Public Information Meeting and Public Hearing scheduled for January 9, 1991, regarding the Lake Elmo Airport Comprehensive Plan Update has been postponed. A new meeting date, time and location will be arranged for mid-February, 1991. No reason was given for the postponement.

GENE'S RV-6 UPDATE

Gene Frank has completed the wings and tail of his RV-6, and by the time you read this, should have ordered the fuselage kit.

BOFFO CALENDAR SALES

Rosemary Frank reports that for the first time ever, our chapter sold all of our EAA calendars. If you put off buying one, yer too late.

FAA AIRCRAFT RECORDS

If you have just purchased an airplane or are considering such a purchase, FAA will provide you with a list of all previous owners and copies of every FAA form 337 that has been completed on the aircraft. The information is on microfiche film so you need to visit your local library to use their microfiche reader. The FAA charges approximately $4. If you are interested in this information, write or call:
