 CHAPTER 54 MEETING: MONDAY, APRIL 8, 1985 7:30 p.m. SANBORN AVIATION

Dear Members and Friends:

As proud as I am of my newly acquired CRAFTSMAN CORNER AWARD cap, I gladly take it off to NORTHWEST ORIENT and especially to PHIL PROKOP for making our tour the success it was. I have been to some company open houses, but none have been as informative as this one.

We toured a 727, 747 and the new 757. We were guided through the welding shop, the electric shop, the electronics ship, the machine shop, the sheet metal shop, the upholstering shop, the liferaft repair shop, and we saw jet engines being disassembled and reassembled. We toured for four hours and still didn't see it all. Because of tired feet and an empty stomach we quit early, and about half of us met at the Ground Round, pushed a half dozen tables together and partied.

President Paul has informed me that he would like some chapter feedback on deleting the Chapter Designee program. It is costing $10,000. per year to run this program for 1,000 designees. About 18% of our Designees are providing a service to our members. Think about it. Hash it over and let's discuss it on April 8th.

As John Joyce once said,
May your landings equal your takeoffs.

P.S. If you're interested in buying your 747 Captain picture, it will cost $2.00 per snapshot and $8.00 for an 8 X 10 and a snapshot. The money goes into the Chapter Fund, less the price of the film and the cost of developing. Payment in advance at the Chapter meeting.

I have a few extra copies of SPORT AVIATION that I'd like to swap with someone.
Here is a list of my extra copies.

Word has been received via the grapevine that our favorite person, Chuck Larsen, recently underwent surgery involving a pacemaker. We all wish him a speedy "up & at 'em!"

This issue of the newsletter is being sent out to two additional chapters on our list: Chapter 210 of Youngstown, Ohio c/o Dan Kautz. It seems Ray Wyland ran into Dan at the Sun 'n Fun festivities last month. There is also Chapter 55 of Lansing, Michigan added. I've been promising to send them this letter for years now. Maybe I'll get one of theirs again.

Chapter 54 has a videotape of Oshkosh '84 available to other chapters for use at their meetings. A nominal fee plus postage and insurance costs will get you the tape for showing. Please call Rosemary Frank for details at 451-8187.

Our second annual MUSEUM WORK PARTY trip on April 26 - 28 still has seats available on the bus. It promises to be a first class, action packed weekend for all who attend. Send your $25./person fee to Eleanor at 10801 Quinn Ave. S. Bloomington, MN 55437 by April 19th and get in on the FUN!
