Our EAA Chapter is in need of a new newsletter editor. Our current newsletter editor, Elizabeth Resh, will be moving in August to attend college in Durant, Oklahoma at Southeastern Oklahoma State University. This means that July will be the last month we will have a newsletter if someone does not accept the position.

All the position requires is a few hours a month making the newsletter and checking emails for questions and submissions by chapter members. Basic computer knowledge is helpful.

If you have any questions about taking this position, please email Elizabeth Resh at fly4girl@gmail.com. She is more than happy to help you step into this position.

EAA Chapter 732 Home

In January, our President, Randy Resh, tasked a few volunteers to scout our possible places for a permanent home for EAA Chapter 732. That group came back in February with a good place. The Arkansas Air and Military Museum in Fayetteville, Arkansas, on Drake Field is going to allow us to use part of their space in the back of the museum to be the permanent home of EAA 732.

Part of the agreement with the Museum is that our chapter will need to help with their Airport Day. Our first opportunity is on May 21.

Thank you for everyone who helped at the work day (night) at the Museum. We got a lot accomplished and moved some items to give us room to have our things. The flyer for the Airport Day is on the previous page.

Thank you very much to the Arkansas Air and Military Museum for allowing us to use some of their space. This is a great joint venture that will benefit both organizations and promote aviation.

A view of the space the EAA Chapter will be allowed to use.

A picture taken after the work day at the Museum in Fayetteville. Great progress!!!
