Newsletter of Chapter 75 Quad-Cities of Illinois and Iowa, USA

June 2013

THE EXPERIMENTAL AIRCRAFT ASSOCIATION

From The Desk of the President

Another Young Eagle event held at the Davenport Airport, gave 26 youth rides and their first exposure to general aviation. They all received a certificate with a log book with their flight time recorded. They are now prepared to advance their aviation learning through taking the private written exam supplied by Sporty's Pilot Shop, and at no cost to the Young Eagle. See more in the Young Eagle article on page 4 of the newsletter.

The first of our summer meetings will be Saturday, June 8th at the Kewanee Airport. There is a Young Eagle event scheduled to begin at 8:00A.M. Then the usual potluck will start at 12:00 noon, also at the airport. The hosts are Ron Franck, Jim Love and Randy Stisser. They will hold the get-together in the new, large hangar at the south east section of the ramp, Kewanee Municipal Airport, KEZI. Look for signs directing where to enter and park. Restrooms are located directly next to the hangar.

Will serve brats and hotdogs at Noon. Soda pop, coffee and water provided. Bring a dish or two to pass. Those attending are requested to provide their own tableware. Table and chairs provided. Bring a guest and your favorite lawn chair and share in some good, old fashion hangar flying. Area chapters are welcome.

Kewanee Municipal is not the easiest airport to find by road. See page 2 for driving directions. Let's have the usual large summer picnic crowd to support these hosts.

The nominating committee, chaired by Keith Williams includes Kent Johnson, Mike Smith and Ralph Stephens. They are taking names for candidates to fill the positions up for election this year through the October 13th meeting. The elections will be held at the November 9th, 2013 meeting. The positions up for election this year are President, Vice President, five Class II directors, with one of the director's positions filled by the newsletter editor.

The Board of Directors, Tool Committee and Emergency Aircraft Repair Committee continue to work on drafts for Standard Operating Procedures.

Chapter 75 Congratulates Casey Jones on His Solo on May 24th at the Davenport Airport

I thought I would send a picture that was taken right after my first solo this last Friday May 24th. It was a beautiful day and a memory I will cherish forever. My solo took place at KDVN. I started training twelve years ago but stopped short of my solo so needless to say I have waited a long time for this. I am training with Jordan Bidwell at Carver and am happy to be flying again and really enjoy being a member of EAA Chapter 75.

What Was It? As Submitted by Cy Galley

No one guessed correctly. This one was VERY HARD.

It is a Boyd Flying Craft Model C. The two Boyd aircraft were the Boyd Flying Craft Model A and the Boyd Flying Craft Model C (no information is known to have survived concerning a Model B, if ever there was one). The Model A was built and flown in 1924. Powered by a 45-horsepower Anzani, it had a wingspan of 30 feet – the latter being the only recorded dimension. It was claimed to have been the first U.S. aircraft with "controllable flaps." For more see the entire article in Flight Journal.

Lesser Known Aircraft of WWII - The Timm N2T Tutor - A New Monthly Column by Ron Franck

History and Notes:

The Timm Aircraft Corporation of Van Nuys, California introduced a method of aircraft construction that involved the use of a plastic-bonded plywood which they themselves had developed. In 1940 the company designed a two-seat light aircraft using this material and, on 2 April 1941 the resulting aeroplane, the Timm S-160-K, became the first of plastic-bonded plywood construction to be awarded an Approved Type Certificate.

The use of construction materials other than the conventional light alloy was of particular interest to the U.S. services, and the US Navy ordered two of these aircraft for evaluation as XN2T-1s, stipulating the installation of a Continental R-670 radial engine. Service trials proved to be satisfactory and resulted in contracts which covered construction of 260 N2T-1 primary trainers, these being given the name Tutor.

The aircraft presented an external finish that was aerodynamically very clean, free from rivet heads and indifferent fillers or fairings. The configuration was a low-wing cantilever monoplane, with wing, fuselage and tail unit entirely of wooden construction, including extensive use of the plastic-bonded plywood process, which had been patented under the name Aeromold.

The fuselage was of particular interest, for most contemporary aircraft of composite construction retained a basic fuselage structure of steel tube. That of the Tutor was, however, all-wood with plastic-bonded veneer circular formers and stringers, all covered with a moulded laminated wood skins.

Features included hydraulically operated single-slotted trailing-edge flaps, fixed tailwheel type landing gear with main unit shock-absorption by oleopneumatic struts of Timm design, and all controls and control surfaces pivoting on ball or roller bearings. The powerplant comprised the Continental R-670 radial engine specified, with a two-blade variable pitch propeller. This was mounted without any cowlings whatsoever, marring the appearance of what was, for it's day, a most attractive training aircraft.

Deliveries of the N2T-1s began in 1943 and, like most other primary trainers in service use, remained in employment until towards the end of 1944.

SPECIFICATIONS

TYPE: two-seat primary trainer
POWERPLANT: one 220-hp (164 kW) Continental R-670-4 radial piston engine
PERFORMANCE: maximum speed 144 mph; cruising speed 124 mph; service ceiling 16,000 feet; range 400 miles
WEIGHTS: empty 1,940 lb; max take-off 2,725 lb
DIMENSIONS: span 36 feet; length 24 ft 10 in height 10 ft 8 in; wing area 185 sq ft
ARMAMENT: none
OPERATOR: USN

See you Saturday at Coffee and Donuts on the 8th and at the potluck and Young Eagle event in Kewanee.

Happy Flying – Jim

The Next Young Eagles Rally is on June 8, 8AM at the Kewanee Airport

Chapter 75's next Young Eagle Rally will be held at the Kewanee Airport on June 8th just prior to the fabulous Chapter 75 potluck lunch. Pilots and ground support folks are asked to gather at 8AM at the airport. Fly to the potluck lunch EARLY and fly some of the kids. The reward is the smile and the thank - you that you will receive as the pilot.

On May 8th, the chapter flew 26 new Young Eagles. The kids had a blast!! Each received a Young Eagle's flight certificate, a pilot's logbook and a certificate from Sporty's which entitles each of them to take the private pilot ground school course and prepare for the private pilot's written exam provided by Sporty's, all free of charge.

In addition, Brian Witt from KWQC's Paula Sands Live was there. Brian flew with Jim Goetch and two of the Young Eagles and had a great time. The resulting video segment was featured on Paula Sands Live a few weeks later. The segment was recorded and we hopefully will be able to place the segment on the Chapter 75 website in the near future. This was a great piece of publicity featuring Chapter 75 in the Quad Cities.

SO...PLEASE help us at Kewanee. Contact Cinda Beert at 563-505-9988 indicating you will help.

Scholarships Nominee's Needed

(from Gina Gore)

Chapter 75 is now recruiting for the 2014 summer EAA Air Academy camp. The academy provides an atmosphere where mature students become totally immersed in the world of flight. Ground instruction and introductory recreation flight experiences highlight this action-packed camp. It combines "in-the-air" and "on-the-ground" hands-on activities. The scholarship program encourages, recognizes and supports excellence among EAA members.

Scholarships help outstanding students who demonstrate a strong aviation desire to accomplish their goals. To be considered you should be well rounded, involved in school and community activities, as well as aviation. Academic records should show that you can successfully complete the educational activity for which you are applying. This is a full 100% funded 501 (3) (c) scholarship invested through the Moline Foundation valued from $680-$1200 per participant which annually provides tuition of one or more EAA Air Academy scholarships at any level for up to 2-3 youth to attend the EAA Air Academy Session for one week during the summer months. Our chapter has a passion for flying and mentoring the next generation and this endowed scholarship was established to benefit youth who have an interest in aerospace and flight

To qualify: You must live within the Quad Cities of Illinois, Iowa or outlying areas; ages 14-18 years old; 2.8 minimum GPA, and applicant must have completed a Young Eagle Flight and be an EAA member. The recipient(s) are required to volunteer for 2 chapter events and present a power point presentation for the chapter members in the fall of the year attended to share their experiences with the group. Recipients are responsible for their own transportation to and from the academy.

To learn more about this scholarship, contact Gina Gore, EAA Air Academy Advisor at 563-940-6273.

Never Mind the Aerodynamics - Oshkosh Here We Come!

To schedule a Young Eagle flight which will qualify the applicant for a free EAA student membership contact Cinda Beert, our EAA Chapter 75 Young Eagles Coordinator at 563-505-9988. The deadline for submission is September 30, 2013.

Both ships were converted from side-wheeler cruise ships operating in the Great lakes at the time. They were converted in less than two months! ## Chapter 75 Merchandise Now Available

(from Marty Santic)

As mentioned at the last meeting, baseball caps are now available with the new Chapter 75 logo. The caps are of nice quality and the logo is embroidered, not printed. The caps are available for $11 and will be available at our future monthly meetings. I will ship in a Priority Mail package for an additional $5.00, if you cannot make one of the meetings. The normal price from Vistaprint.com is $16. I ordered 50 and received a discount. If you would like a cap, please send me an e-mail. marty.santic@gmail.com If you would like me to ship, send a check to Marty Santic, 3920 E. 59th St., Davenport, IA 52807

Also available via CafePress are men's clothing items such as T-shirts, sweatshirts and jackets, women's clothing items, child's clothing items, accessories and holiday items with the logo. The logo is printed and not embroidered on all of the items from CafePress.

I displayed one of the T-shirts at the last meeting. Nice quality, the printing is not raised on the fabric surface. So the fabric remains nice and soft.

You can visit the Chapter 75 store by going to www.cafepress.com/eachapter75. All items are shipped directly to the buyer. All you need is a credit
