Memorial Day Celebration at the Lao, Hmong and American Veterans Memorial

Following the 9a.m. Memorial Day parade on May 29, the public is invited to Deland Park to attend the celebration at the Lao, Hmong and American Veterans Memorial (LHAVM). The ceremony begins at 11:30 a.m. The event will include remarks by LHAVM chairman Xia Vue Yang and Sheboygan mayor Ryan Sorenson. The memorial celebrates the camaraderie between the Hmong and Lao warriors during the era of the Secret War in Laos, and their American counterparts, namely the US Special Forces and Air America crews. A T-28 flyover by pilot Paul Walter showcases the plane flown by Hmong pilots.

The keynote speaker of the day will be Maj. Steven Schofield, author of "Secret War in Laos: Green Berets, CIA and the Hmong." He served as a medic in the US Army Special Forces in Okinawa, Taiwan, Philippines and in Vietnam, and with USAID Public Health Division in Laos. After returning from Laos, he joined the Special Forces Army Reserve and retired as a major in 1995 and today is an active supporter of the Lao, Hmong and American Veterans' Memorial. 18 new panels being added to the Memorial will be dedicated, and the event will be rounded out by Hmong cultural dancers.

Following the event, attendees are invited to attend the SGU luncheon at Deland Park, and all are invited to visit the Aviation Heritage Center at the Sheboygan County Airport where the connection between the Hmong and Air America is showcased in detail. Air America pilot Neil Hansen will be on hand. Article submitted by Luann Grosscup

EAA Announces Inaugural Learn to Fly Week May 15 to 20

Aspiring aviators will have the opportunity to discover multiple pathways to becoming a pilot as EAA presents its inaugural Learn to Fly Week on May 15-20.

Beginning May 15th, expert flight instructors and representatives from various aviation organizations will present free, interactive webinars. These webinars will cover topics from starting flight training, saving time and money in flight training, preparing for the FAA written exam, to passing the checkride, and so much more. While the live showing of these presentations will be open to the public, the recordings will be archived for EAA members to view at their convenience.

Learn to Fly Week will conclude on Saturday, May 20, with Flying Start events hosted at chapters across the country. EAA's Flying Start program allows EAA chapters to welcome, encourage, and educate new aviation enthusiasts about the fun, freedom, and accessibility of personal aviation in their local area.

Following a short presentation about learning to fly, attendees will be offered a free introductory Eagle Flight to experience the spirit of aviation firsthand. "Becoming a pilot is a dream for many, but few know where to start their journey. Learn to Fly Week was created to help encourage aspiring pilots to take action and begin the pilot training process," said David Leiting, EAA Eagles Program Manager. "Our goal is to show attendees how accessible achieving their dream actually is." Leiting also added that inspiration from this event stemmed from packed forums at the Learn to Fly Center at EAA AirVenture Oshkosh 2022, as well as the success of other EAA virtual events like Homebuilders Week and Virtual Ultralight Days.

Combining the educational forums from the Learn to Fly Center and the connections and inspiration found at Flying Start events, EAA Learn to Fly Week is the latest effort in the ongoing effort to help aspiring pilots achieve their dream of flight.

Sporty's Pilot Shop is the presenting sponsor of Learn to Fly Week. Sporty's will be participating in multiple webinars and offering product discounts during the week.

Full webinar schedule and more details on Learn to Fly Week can be found at EAA.org/LTFWeek.
