EAA Chapter 766 Elections

Due to EAA 766 members traveling and hunting during the Thanksgiving Holiday week, the November 766 meeting has been canceled. EAA wants the local chapter elections to occur in a timely manner before the end of the year to allow their staff to make any changes to the local chapter websites if necessary. With this in mind, EAA Chapter 766 elections for President, Vice-President and all Directors will be held at the October 16 meeting.

Please consider taking on one of the available positions to utilize your thoughts and perspectives to make EAA Chapter 766 great!

Old Business / Open Issues- None

New Business –

We need a program for the October meeting. Any volunteers?

Lee Kunze proposed to the chapter to sell an old donut fryer that has been unused for 20 plus years. Motion to sell carried. Lee will arrange to do so.

The chapter agreed to cancel the November meeting since it falls within the week of Thanksgiving. Too many members would be out traveling or hunting, etc.

Important- October Elections!! President, Vice President, and renomination of Directors. Please consider taking on a role.

Guest Speaker – Tom Trestor – Director of Maintenance at Windway Capital, Inc. aircraft / hangars.

The attendees were treated to a private tour of the Windway Capital hangers which contained a 1996 French built, 3 engine, Falcon 50 EX private jet. Also discussed was the Cessna Caravan. Tom provided background and historical use of the aircraft and answered our many questions. Thank you, Tom for your time sharing this with our chapter.
