

March 2025

Events from history...

1 March 1925 (USA) — Ryan Airlines begins the first regularly scheduled passenger airline service flown within the mainland United States. The service runs between Los Angeles and San Diego.

News about members

Kenny Spaniol, our 2023 Ray Scholar, has earned his IFR rating! He has been working as a lineman at Envoy in Des Moines, IA, and training at US Flight Co. He passed his IFR written in January with a 98! He attempted to take his IFR check ride on Saturday, March 22, passing the oral, but 45 knot gusts kept them grounded. Today, March 26, he was able to complete his check ride and as you can see from the smile, passed!

