Happy New Year

President's Column

I wish everyone health and prosperity throughout the New Year. Since the chapter hasn't hosted an on-site judges school since 2019, arrangements are being made to offer one this spring. Stay tuned, details will be posted in a separate bulletin shortly. A brief reminder, January is the time to renew your dues, please submit the form below or bring it to the next chapter meeting.

Chapter Business

2022 EAA Chapter Renewal

- Annual chapter renewal has been filed in December.
- Chapter 88 is insured for general activities, including practice days, up to $1 million.
- Chapter contests can now be insured for up to $3 million at additional cost.

Chapter Bank Transfer

- Completing the transfer of the Treasury responsibility will be a key priority for the Chapter officers.

Member Update

Mary Gowans, longtime member and former Secretary of IAC Chapter 88 has relocated to St Louis closer to her family. We wish Mary well and thank her for her past contribution as a member of Chapter 88.

Recent Competition News

There has been lots of discussion on the IAC aerobatics exploder about the subject of a 6th category, initiated by Rob Holland (12/22/2021). Chapter 88 needs to take a position and formally respond to IAC through our Mid-America Regional Director.
